You've just boarded Hook's ship. Your blood is pumping and a chill races down your spine. You're about to do battle with the most infamous pirate of them all, Captain Hook, the fiend who's kidnapped your children and sworn never to let them go. Suddenly Hook spots you and in one leap is at your throat. But with a quick spin you take flight over the sail and with a single thrust almost pin him to the mast.

The most infamous pirate of them all

As Peter Pan, this is the fight of your life. Everything that came before — your duel with Rufio, your dive to the ship wreck, even your battles against the pirates and creatures of Neverland — are nothing compared to this moment. Hook, the video game. Multiple levels of incredible excitement. Fantastic graphics.

Available now for NES and GameBoy. Get Hook. Before Hook gets you!

STAN'S SOAPBOX

Hi, Heroes!

I've just been looking over a list of the new projects, titles, team-ups and series that our indefatigable editor-in-chief, Titanic Tom DeFalco, and his sagacious staff of editorpersons have been cooking up for you in their colorful little inglenooks here in the hallowed halls of Marvel.

Now this isn't gonna be a high-pressure, hard-sell puff piece describing all our fantastic new feature ideas; you'll be able to learn about them in the forthcoming WAM bulletins, as well as in future issues of MARVEL AGE and our usual batch of scintillating, self-laudatory ads and announcements in the months to come.

Instead, in these few paragraphs, which are among the most widely read in all of comicdom, I want to once again express my boundless admiration — and the admiration of Marvel fans everywhere — for the brilliant creative output of the most hardworking staff in comics.

Just think about it. Virtually every issue that Tom's loyal legions produces is tantamount to a full-length feature film in plot, complexity and characterization. But, whereas the average movie takes at least a year (and usually much longer) from inception to completion, our celebrated sagas are produced at the unbelievable rate of a new one each and every month! And hey, we're not talking just one movie-length masterpiece each month, but nearly a hundred separate superhero titles within each thirty-day period! It doth fairly boggle the mind!

That's the reason for this heartfelt though woefully inadequate tribute to Marvel's creative geniuses wherever they may be. It's not because they're unappreciated; they've won every award in the book! It's not because they twisted my arm; they have no idea I'm writing this! It's not because I have to; I can use this space to spout off about any subject under the sun! And it's not because I've never mentioned it before—I've extolled their brilliance many times over the past years.

No, the only reason I just had to write this column is because I admire and respect each and every one of these gifted Marvel madmen whose awesome creative output brings such reading pleasure to countless fans around the world. Although, "admire and respect" doesn't nearly say enough — I just plain love 'em all, and I've got a hunch that you do, too!

Excelsior!

Stan

Stan Lee

There was all sorts of mayhem around the Bullpen this month as the whole Marvel gang was featured on MTV. The excitement started when MTV veejay Karyn Bryant showed up with a camera crew to tape some spots around the Bullpen. The spots aired one day in February, somewhere between "Club MTV" and "Yo, MTV Raps!" and featured such stalwarts as Bob Harras, Mark Gruenwald, and Dave (the Lettering Guy) Sharpe! Will this lead to future Marvel/MTV collaborations — "Club NFL Superpro," or "Yo, Darkhawk Raps!"? Guess we'll just have to let the chips fall where they may.

One guy who was hollering "mayday" around the halls of Marvel was Epic Executive Editor Carl Potts, who recently launched a new epic with the birth of his son Justin Carl in January. Because Carl's baby was born under the Epic imprint, this means Carl and his wife Cathy retain complete ownership of the baby if it goes on to become a successful comic book series! (Contrary to rumor, Carl's baby wasn't born in the Mayo Clinic!)

One guy who didn't exactly come over on the Mayflower is Len Kaminski, who recently left staff to become regular scripter on IRON MAN, the all-new MORBIUS THE LIVING VAMPIRE series, and the long-awaited SLAPSTICK limited series. We've been promising SLAPSTICK for quite a while now, but this year, we'll get it out, come what may.

Taking Len's place as Ralph Macchio's assistant is Pat Garrahy, who may or may not run for mayor some day. Replacing Pat as Glenn Herdling's assistant is Mike Lackey, the writer of the smash hit WCW WORLD CHAMPIONSHIP WRESTLING comic, who told us he no longer wants to be hit over the head with a steel chair by the WCW champ. Mike's new ambition in life is to actually be the one who gets to hit the champ over the head with the steel chair. WCW editor Mike Rockwitz said if Lackey keeps this up, he will personally whack Lackey over the head with a word processor, or desk, or whatever's handy.

That Mike Lackey may be wacky — but there were plenty of lunatics to be found at the annual Toy Fair which was held in New York the second week in February. There were tons and tons o' new toys on display — this being the event where toy manufacturers run their new product lines up the maypole to see who salutes. The highlight of the toy fair for us, of course, was the party held one night for the Marvel elite to hobnob with retailers and manufacturers in the toy industry.

Terry Stewart and Stan Lee — no may-flies on these guys — were there to officially inaugurate the 30th anniversary celebration of Spider-Man. Spidey himself showed up to blow out the candles. A few of Spidey's friends and foes showed up, as well — among them, Captain America, Iron Man, Doctor Doom, and the Green Goblin. Some guys will do anything for a free meal!

Executives from Carolco Pictures were also present — that's the studio that's currently set to produce the Spider-Man live-action motion picture — but sadly, Spidey director James Cameron was unable to attend. Be that as it may, a splendid time was had by all.

The centerpiece of the Marvel party was The Danger Room, which was a special trap-filled room that had been set up to snare unsuspecting party-goers. The room was filled with smoke, and you all know how dangerous smoke is! You could choke on it! An overweight Professor X on a viewscreen guided victims through the room, which offered opportunities to play the Spidey and Captain America arcade video games absolutely free! Talk about danger — patrons could have been trampled by overeager video enthusiasts. Thankfully, this did not occur. Other hazards: The Danger Room was very dark — people could have tripped and bumped their heads! Ninety percent of all Danger Room head injuries are caused by poor lighting! The showstopper was a ten-foot robot which stalked like a Sentinel with a few chips short of a full memory. Truly, all who entered were lucky to have made it out alive. After a harrowing experience like that, we all could have used a vacation down in Cape May!

Well, it looks like we may be out of room for this month. Or we may not. We may never know.

Next month: JUNE!

Hey, Bill & Ted!

EDITOR: Fabian Nicleza ASSIST. EDITOR: Evan Skolnick

Write to: Hey, Bill & Ted! c/o MARVEL ENTERTAINMENT GROUP,
367 Park Avenue South, New York, NY 10016

Attention Correspondent-Dudes: All letters considered for publication must include your name and address, though we will withhold that info upon request!

Welcome, excellent readers, to what might turn out to be our first truly non-triumphant BILL & TED letter column.

It's with no small amount of trepidation that we, the editors, have agreed to allow Bill & Ted's Martian scientist friend Station (well, one of him, anyway) to guest-host this letters page. Since the Stations' use of language is somewhat...limited...we will attempt to translate his replies to your excellent correspondence.

As we've mentioned before, those of you interested in joining the Bill & Ted fan club or purchasing B & T merchandise can contact Linda Kay, the most excellent founder and president of Bill & Ted's Outstanding Past and Future Appreciation Society. Her address is P.O. Box 4769, San Dimas CA 91773.

And so, if Station is ready...uh, are you ready, Station?

Station!

Ah, right. Then take it away...

Yo! Bill & Ted,

You are the coolest dudes in the world! Your comic book is most excellent! I have a question, dudes: will you ever have a comic book where there are thousands of Bills and Teds?

Kevin Ridgeway
14365 Ted Ford
Whittier, CA

Station!

Loosely translated, Station's reply works out to something like... "NO WAY!"

Dear Great Ones,

I just had to tell you two most triumphant dudes that you are the most excellent dudes ever to be on Earth. Why don't you just Melvin that Death dude back to where he came from? Why don't you have Rufus in the next issue? When was Rufus born? How old are you? I've always been totally bewildered by that. When were the princesses born and what's their dad's name?

Justin P. Windham, Esq.
410 F.S. Gatehouse Drive
Metairie, LA 70001

Station!

Translation: "You ask way too many questions, Justin."

(Hey, Fabian, how could the Stations and their fellow Martians live in a supposedly advanced society where everyone is only able to say their own name?)

Dear Bill & Ted,

You guys and Death are cool. I liked your first movie but I think Bill & Ted's Bogus Journey is better. I would like to have a Bill & Ted figure. Also, I have been reading your comic books.

Jeremy Pipplin
Hardyville, KY

Station!

Rough translation: "Thanks for writing, Jeremy!"

(I don't know, Evan...doesn't really make much sense, does it? How could they even ask where the bathroom is, let alone build a robot out of ordinary household items?)

Dear Bill & Ted,

How's it goin', dudes? I'm your biggest fan. So big, I have seen both of your movies. They were both excellent. I have your comic books, and even though I'm eleven, I watch your cartoons on Saturday mornings. They're excellent, too.

I wish I could meet you guys in person. I'll get more of your comic books, watch your TV show and who knows, maybe I'll even write to you guys again. Well, till then, be excellent to each other! Party on, dudes!

Jesse Striewski
128 Cambridge Drive
Longwood, FL 32779

Station!

(Exactly what I'm talking about, Fabe. I mean, c'mon, you've got the most brilliant scientists who ever lived, but they can't say "eight?" Let's be real...)

Bill! Ted! Doodds!

Kudos on a stupendous series! If issues #1-6 are any indication, B & T are gonna be hangin' with us for quite a while! B & T is the best rock comic since STEELTOWN ROCKERS, a series I dearly miss. Let's have a little more Death in this book (you know what I mean!)

This book is the perfect continuation of the movies! Congrats to Evan Dorkin on keeping Bill & Ted alive. By the way, I love Ev's work in Reflex. Keep up the mondo fantastic job, dudes!

Will Mason
130 Triple Tree Drive
Carrollton GA 30117

Station! STATION!!

(Yeah, really! And what's the deal with this "running into each other and getting smarter" business, anyway? What kind of sense does that make? Whenever I run into someone else, I sure as heck don't get an I.Q. jump! In fact, if I do it hard enough —)

Bill & Ted,

Hey, dudes! How's it goin'? Very excellent here! The first time I saw this comic book, I had to get it!

Totally excellent! I especially think both movies and the cartoons are most non-non-triumphant! Is there going to be another movie? If there is, then I have a suggestion. Would you guys check out "Got the Time" by Anthrax (from Persistence of Time)? I think it would be one of the most excellent songs to put in the movie! Don't forget!

By the way, do you guys have any more of those Bill & Ted's Excellent Adventure T-shirts? If you do, I'd like an extra-large. Well, gotta go for now! Catch you later, dudes!

Krista
720 Oriole Street
Aiken SC 29803

STATION!! STAAAAAATION!!!

(Geez, what's that Martian's problem? Anyway, Fabe, I couldn't agree with you more on that I.Q. thing. And Mars? Now we know the Stations can't come from Mars, because we've had probes and so on explore the surface, and there's no life! So how —)

STATION! STAAAAAATION!!!
(What the — ? You think he's trying to tell us something, Ev?)

STAAAAAATION!!!! STAAAAA — ack — hunh — ackkk —

(Hard to say, Fabe...could be almost anything, really. We're out of room, anyway. Thanks for all the help, Station!)

s — s — station...

NEXT MONTH:

Death gets canned! And his replacement is the biggest pain in the scythe since Napoleon (no offense, short dead dude!)

It's not a pretty sight as the Grim Reaper searches for steady work in these truly recessive times! Check it out...in 30 days!
